LEEDS
COLLEGE of ART
1846

Welcome to the 16th Leeds Young Film Festival – a unique opportunity for you to watch some of the best films from around the world that young people will love.

In the last year, we have launched a brand new screening programme with our partners in the city centre, Carriageworks Theatre. Not For Rental is aimed specifically at young people and we are delighted that the whole weekend programme at Hyde Park Picture House in the festival this year will be dedicated to the Not For Rental programme. This will give you a flavour of what's on offer year round. You can find out more about Not For Rental and join the mailing list at www.leedsyoungfilm.com

We have also grown a whole new attraction! The Film House will take over Leeds Town Hall for the Easter weekend from Friday 3rd to Monday 6th April. Offering you an entirely new experience, The Film House gives you a chance to meet your favourite film characters, take part in filmmaking workshops and masterclasses as well as watching your favourite films on the big screen. For more information and to book tickets, visit www.thefilmhouseleeds.com

SCREENING INFORMATION

Classification

Where British Board of Film Classification exists, it will be indicated next to the film.

Where films are not classified by the BBFC, the Film Festival has recommended its own rating and age suitability next to the film. See website for up-to-date ratings.

For more details about film content and recommended ages, go to leedsyoungfilm.com or ring the Leeds Young Film team on 0113 247 8398.

Children under 12 years old must be accompanied by an adult in the cinema. We are not responsible for anyone left alone in the cinema or any belongings taken into the cinema.

Programme Information

AD))) Audio described screening: cinema audio description is a service for people with visual impairments. Alongside the film soundtrack, a descriptive track explains what's happening on screen. Ask at the cinema to borrow a pair of A.D. headphones.

Babes-in-arms screening: we provide a relaxed environment, where parents and carers can relax and enjoy the film, while babies and toddlers (up to 12 months) are free to be themselves. With raised lighting levels, reduced volume and baby changing/bottle warming facilities, we aim to make these screenings as comfortable for you as possible.

The programme is subject to change - for latest info see website.

THE FILM HOUSE EXTRAS

Throughout each day at The Film House there are extra special events that give you access to secret parts of Leeds Town Hall, not normally available to the public.

CLOCK TOWER TIME TRAVEL TOUR

Age 8+

Tickets £4.50 per person

(children must be accompanied by an adult)

Join storyteller Matthew Bellwood as he takes you on an adventure which leads you up The Film House's Clock Tower, and takes you back in time to meet Louis le Prince – the man who made the first ever film (in Leeds in 1888).

As you climb the steps you will learn about the amazing history of the clock as well as seeing the giant bell, the clock mechanism and clock itself, whilst taking in a view of Leeds like no other.

At the end of the tour you will get to take away a special souvenir of your visit and hopefully be inspired to make some films of your own!

Tours run every day from Fri 3 - Mon 6 April at 09:30, 10:30, 11:30, 13:30, 14:30, 15:30, 16:30

Access to the tower is up a narrow staircase of 203 steep steps and there are no toilets or facilities. Once on the tour you will not be able to come back down unaccompanied. If weather is particularly bad then we will not be able to take people onto the outside of the clock tower.

You must have a Film House Day Pass to book these events. See page 4 for booking info.

City Centre Box Office: 0113 224 3801

EASTER BUNNY FOREST ADVENTURE

Age 5+

Tickets £4.50 per person

(children must be accompanied by an adult)

If you go down in the woods today... In the basement of The Film House you'll find a magical and mysterious underground forest where we invite you for an Easter Egg hunt. If you're lucky, you might just meet the real life Easter Bunny too!

Join storyteller Beth Caudle who will guide you through the enchanted forest while thrilling you with wonderful stories about the Easter Bunny and other mythical creatures.

Every child is guaranteed to take home an Easter Egg and an activity pack!

Tours run every day from Fri 3 - Mon 6 April at 09:30, 10:30, 11:30, 13:30, 14:30, 15:30, 16:30

The Easter Bunny adventure takes place beneath Leeds Town Hall and contains a number of potential trip hazards, such as uneven floors. Leeds City Council has taken every step to ensure that the space is safe and takes no responsibility for accidents or injury.

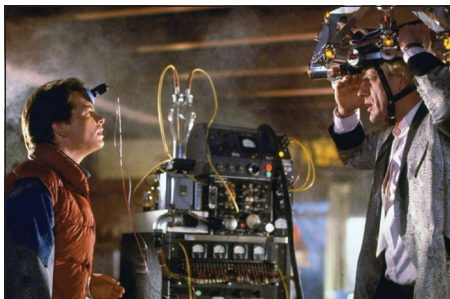

LIFF AT THE FILM HOUSE

Leeds International Film Festival is delighted to present an evening programme as part of The Film House with anniversary screenings of family classics Back to the Future (with replica DeLorean) and The Sound of Music, a special presentation of the new digital print of Blade Runner: The Final Cut, and the return of cult favourite Labyrinth. The screening of Labyrinth will include 'Exploring the Labyrinth', a short introduction to Trevor Jones's music for the film through materials from the recording process guided by a team from the University of Leeds - see www.trevorjonesfilm.leeds.ac.uk for full details of the Trevor Jones project.

Tickets are just £7 / £5 (child / concession) apart from Blade Runner which is £10 / £8

Lola on the Pea

Tue 7 April, 1.30pm, HPPH 10+
Dir. Thomas Heinemann, Germany, 2014,
90 mins, German with English subtitles

Lola lives with her mum on a houseboat. Since her father left a year ago she has become introverted and is made fun of at school. Even worse her mother has started dating a new man, Kurt, whom Lola is determined not to like. When she meets new boy Rebin, a Kurd living illegally in Germany, she soon discovers that family and friendship are more important than petty arguments.

Recommended 10+ due to one scene of natural nudity and one use of mild bad language. Subtitles.

Shana - The Wolf's Music

Wed 8 April, 4pm, Hyde Park Picture House 12+
Dir. Nino Jacusso, Canada/Switzerland, 2014, 96 mins

The First Nations girl Shana is a very gifted musician. But to make her violin sing and get into music school, she must come to terms with the recent death of her mother and help her alcoholic father overcome his grief. Guided by a new teacher, Shana starts to really understand the ways of her people and once again feels the music flowing through her thanks to the wolf's spirit. Nino Jacusso has filmed this captivating coming-of-age drama with sensational beauty and spiritual tenderness.

Recommended 12+ due to some moderate bad language, theme of parental loss and scenes of mild peril.

The Legend of Longwood + Director Q&A

Thu 9 April, 4pm, Hyde Park Picture House 12+
Dir. Lisa Mulcahy, Netherlands/Ireland/Germany, 2014, 99 mins

When 12-year-old Mickey Miller moves from New York to Ireland, she soon discovers a link between herself and the 300-year-old legend of the spectral Black Knight, whose appearances always mean that something evil is going to happen in the sleepy Irish village. With courage and a sharp mind, Mickey sets out to save a precious herd of white horses from a greedy, ambitious woman who wants to have them destroyed. We will be welcoming director Lisa Mulcahy to the screening for an introduction and Q&A.

Recommended 12+ due to scenes of peril, moderate bad language and theme.

25TH ANNIVERSARY SCREENINGS

The Witches

Fri 3 April, 12pm, HPPH
Dir. Nicholas Roeg, USA, 1990, 92 mins

Based on Roald Dahl's book, a recently orphaned young boy stumbles onto a witch convention and must stop them, even after he has been turned into a mouse. Scenes of magic and mayhem are peppered with surprises as Angela Huston plays the wickedest witch of them all.

"I love Roald Dahl's books and The Witches is a great, scary adaptation, made when children's films were a lot darker than they are now. It's really stood the test of time." - Ruby, MediaFish

NOT FOR RENTAL AT HYDE PARK PICTURE HOUSE

NOT FOR RENTAL

Not For Rental is the exciting new cinema programme in Leeds city centre for viewers aged 15 and over. Initially funded by Film Hub North and curated by MediaFish, a group of 15-24 year-olds with a passion for film, the programme now runs monthly from The Carriageworks Theatre in Leeds.

The programme includes exciting, challenging and films rarely seen on the big screen. The films range from British Independent productions to archive screenings, documentaries and foreign language films covering everything from comedy to horror, action to drama.

For the Leeds Young Film Festival, the programme is moving to Hyde Park Picture House where we are proud to bring you a selection of archive classics from directors such as Alfred Hitchcock and Michael Powell & Emeric Pressburger, a double bill of films from Marjane Satrapi, including her new black comedy, The Voices, starring Ryan Reynolds, the riotous mockumentary, What We Do in the Shadows from New Zealand (which won the Audience Award at Leeds International Film Festival in 2014) and a couple of very different coming-of-age stories from Germany and Denmark.

A Matter of Life and Death

Sat 4 April, 2pm, Hyde Park Picture House
Dirs. Michael Powell/Emeric Pressburger, UK, 1946, 104 mins

An iconic masterpiece of British cinema, A Matter of Life and Death is an endlessly inventive WW2 fantasy set in a gorgeously photographed Technicolor England and a monochrome heaven. David Niven plays a British airman who survives a plane crash and falls in love with an American radio operator, only to be summoned to a dreamlike impression of the afterlife where he must fight for a chance to remain on earth with his new love.

"Everything about Powell and Pressburger's war-time classic is perfect. This timeless film about love conquering all is guaranteed to bring a tear to even the most hard-hearted person." Sam, MediaFish

Strangers on a Train

Sun 5 April, 2pm, Hyde Park Picture House
Dir. Alfred Hitchcock, USA, 1950, 101 mins

Alfred Hitchcock's chilling adaptation of Patricia Highsmith's novel is one of Hollywood's finest psychological thrillers. The often imitated story follows a chance encounter on a train between a young tennis player and a charming psychopath who strike a bargain to exchange murders, hoping the absence of motive will enable them both to get away with their crimes.

"Hitchcock at his best. Full of suspense, with stunning cinematography and a great script. A masterpiece of cinema from such a simple idea" - Michael, MediaFish

Persepolis

Sat 4 April, 4pm, Hyde Park Picture House
Dir. Marjane Satrapi, France/Iran/USA, 2007, 95 mins

Marjane Satrapi's beautifully animated memoir tells the story of her childhood in revolutionary Iran and the culture shock of her emigration to Vienna as a teenager. Poignant, warm and funny, Persepolis combines a vivid coming of age tale with a fascinating historical perspective on Iranian history. See it with her latest film The Voices, which is screening straight afterwards at 6pm.

What We Do in the Shadows

Fri 3 April, 6pm, Hyde Park Picture House
Dir. Jemaine Clement/Taika Waititi, New Zealand/USA,
2014, 86 mins

Follow the exploits of Viago, Deacon, Vladislav and Peter, four vampires sharing a house in Wellington as they try to balance being undead with everyday problems like whose turn it is to wash up, where to find fresh blood and how to dress for a night out when you can't see your reflection. Co-written by and starring Jemaine Clement from Flight of the Conchords, What We Do in the Shadows perfectly balances comedy, horror and social commentary in this hilarious film.

"This hilarious mockumentary was the audience winner at Leeds International Film Festival in 2014 and was one of my favourite films of last year." - Martin, Leeds Young Film Festival

The Voices

Sat 4 April, 6pm, Hyde Park Picture House
Dir. Marjane Satrapi, USA/Netherlands, 2014, 107 mins

Marjane Satrapi returns with a deliciously dark comedy starring Ryan Reynolds as a man suffering from mental illness. Jerry is a slightly odd but charming guy who could do with a few human friends, rather than just his pets, to talk to. When he is stood up for a date with his office crush (Gemma Arterton) after coming off his medication, things take a sudden, deadly turn. Guided by his evil cat, Mr. Whiskers and loveable dog, Bosco, poor Jerry has to try and sort his life out once and for all.

About a Girl

Tue 7 April, 6.30pm, Hyde Park Picture House 15
Dir. Mark Monheim, Germany, 2014, 104 mins, German with English subtitles

Fifteen year old Charleen is Kurt Cobain's biggest fan but doesn't understand why growing up has to be so complicated. One day, feeling especially melodramatic and rebellious, she decides to commit suicide on a whim. Waking up in hospital after her failed attempt, both her, her family and her friends are forced to reassess their lives and relationships. This blackly comic drama looks at the affects our actions have on those around us and the fact that life is always worth living, no matter how bad things seem to be.

When Animals Dream

Wed 8 April, 6.30pm, Hyde Park Picture House 15 tbc
Dir. Jonas Alexander Arnby, Denmark, 2014, 84 mins

Nineteen year old Marie lives with her parents on a small island in Denmark where she works in a fish processing factory. Her life is dull but she has just attracted the attention of some of the local boys and her sexuality is beginning to awaken. At the same time she is diagnosed with a rare genetic disorder, inherited from her catatonic, wheelchair-bound mother. Marie begins to suspect that her symptoms aren't from a disease and that the truth is far more disturbing.

I Am Big Bird: The Carroll Spinney Story

Mon 6 April, 6.30pm, Hyde Park Picture House
Dir. Dave LaMattina/Chad Walker, USA, 2014, 90 mins

Carroll Spinney has been Sesame Street's Big Bird and Oscar the Grouch since 1969 and at 80 years old, he has no intention of stopping. Carroll's stories are the stuff of legend. He has been a constant presence in people's lives for over 40 years, his path weaving through American history like that of Forrest Gump. His time inside the Bird has taught him about the world and about himself and, as the yellow feathers give way to grey hair, it is the man, not the puppet, who will steal your heart.

Thirteen-year-old American, Mica, takes to heart his Rabbi's suggestion to help 'heal the world,' and decides that he will send baseballs to Cuba. He knows only that Cubans have few resources, love baseball, and gave his Jewish grandpa refuge during the Holocaust. As his project progresses, Mica learns that there is a very complicated political relationship between the USA and Cuba and that simply posting some sporting equipment is not going to be that easy. Undeterred he decides to follow through his mission to the end, even if that involves going against the wishes of his government.
